

MANY TURNED AWAY

MANCHESTER SCHOOLS NOT SUFFICIENT FOR THE CHILDREN.

Over 100 Unable to Enter the White and of the Colored Schools--Heavy Rain Puts the Streets in Bad Condition--Personal, &c.

The enrollment of new scholars in the public schools of Manchester took place yesterday. Many a little tot, however, who started out from home eager to begin school life was turned away sad and disappointed on account of there not being accommodations for them.

While over 107 new scholars were enrolled in the white schools, over 160 had to be turned away, there being no room for them. There are now 68 names on the rolls of the white schools.

In the colored schools eighty-seven new scholars were enrolled, making a total in these schools of 518. Thirty-seven colored applicants had to be turned away for want of accommodation. The total number enrolled in both the white and colored schools now is 1,236.

While every one in this city admits that the rain of yesterday was much needed, still it has left the streets in a very muddy and slippery condition, and walking is very disagreeable in some parts of the town. The farmers in this section, however, are happy that the long drought has at last been broken, though they say that the rain came a few weeks ago it would have greatly benefited their crops, which have been severely damaged by the dry spell.

The quantity of rain which fell Monday night caused a certain amount of water to flow into the sewer trench, a force of hands was put to work to fill in the trenches so as to prevent a further overflow.

Mr. John Burnett Stansfield and Miss Mary Elizabeth Lambert were married last Thursday at the residence of the bride's mother, Rev. C. W. Van Houten performed the ceremony.

A very successful revival is being held at the Providence Methodist Episcopal church.

USEFUL BOOKS GIVEN AWAY.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR MAKING ART AND FANCY WORK.

Mrs. Nella Dargott, of Boston, has recently written a book, "Fancy Work and Art Decorations," that gives practical instructions for making dolls, table covers, scarfs, tray cloths, pin-cushions, etc., etc., with fifty illustrations. This book, together with "Successful Home Dyeing," will be sent free to any reader of the Dispatch who forwards the following coupon to Wells, Richardson & Co., Burlington, Vt.

COUPON.

This entitles any reader of the Dispatch to one copy of "Fancy Work and Art Decorations," and "Successful Home Dyeing."

The above liberal offer is made to advertise the old reliable Diamond Dyes and to get their book upon home dyeing into the hands of women who want to dress well by making their old clothing look like new.

In some towns dealers sell imitations of Diamond Dyes simply because they can make more profit on these weak, adulterated substitutes. Some of these dyes claim to color both cotton and wool with the same package, but this is an impossibility as the user soon finds when she has tried to color cotton with a dye that is not especially made for that purpose.

Diamond Dyes have different dyes for cotton from those that are used for wool, and are the only package dyes on the market that can be relied upon to give colors that will not fade or crock. The fact that Diamond Dyes have been the standard home dyes for nearly twenty years, and that their sale increases from year to year is proof positive that they have never had an equal.

THE LATE DR. PRESTON.

The Rev. Dr. J. A. Quarles, D. C. Irwin, D. A. Penick, and Elder E. T. Glasgow, of Lexington, were appointed a committee to prepare a memorial of the Rev. Dr. T. W. Preston, and report to the next meeting of the presbytery, to be held at Charleston, W. Va., during the sessions of the synod.

Rev. J. W. Lafferty returned a certificate to Kanawha Presbytery, given him at the last meeting of the presbytery.

The Rev. Dr. R. M. Latimer was received from Tusculoo Presbytery, and received a call to Gilmerston church.

Rev. H. A. Lapsley presented the report on evangelization of the colored people.

The organization of a church at Upper Glade, Webster county, W. Va., of nineteen members, was reported.

The presbytery decided to put the amended call of Shenandoah church into the hands of Rev. J. A. Thomas, the design of which was to secure his services for all his time.

Rev. S. H. B. Elkins gave the presbytery a reception at her splendid mansion on Friday evening, which was enjoyed very much.

The presbyterial sermon at the next stated meeting will be on the Sabbath, and its proper observance, to be preached by Rev. L. H. Paul, alternate, Rev. G. A. Wilson.

THE NEXT MEETING.

The next stated meeting will be held at Bethel church, May 18, 1896, at 10 A. M.

The Rev. F. J. Brooks has prepared a good map of the presbytery and its mission-field, and a large edition of it will be printed and sold.

The Hon. Stephen B. Elkins and Senator H. G. Davis made a proposition to the presbytery to give $20,000 and a suitable site if the presbytery would raise an equal sum, to establish a first-class college at this place, under the control of the presbytery. They also propose, when $500 is raised, to double it, and begin operations.

The presbytery accepted the offer, with expressions of appreciation and gratitude, and authorized the presbytery to carry it into effect. Such an institution is greatly needed in this part of West Virginia, and will be a great blessing.

The presbytery passed a resolution expressing its cordial approval of the cheap religious newspaper is urgently needed, and appointed a committee to see what can be done to secure such a paper for the church--Revs. C. D. Gilkison, G. A. Wilson, A. H. Hamilton, Elders J. E. Irvine, A. A. Spraul.
